"I am Slash'EM, an assassin using Roman gauntlets to take down mobs in 3D environments. The game is inspired by Quake and other rpgs and is a first person shooter. It uses a 2D projection style that allows the player to move a bit forward and view the landscape. The projection is done with large maps which makes it possible to explore the game world in detail." When... Dawn rose over the city The morning sun tickles the eyes The moon shines on the night The men and women head to work The trees rustle from the right Birdsong fills the air In the shadows under a tree You crouch behind the tree And your heart beats hard As you keep an eye on this gang Waiting for this moment when they come to rest You crawl out from under the shadows You've caught up with them You leap high in the air and punch them On impact both of you collapse to the floor You see a knife on the ground You reach into your pocket Pull out your concealed weapon Grab the knife you find Stab them both to death You walk up to the both of them You press the button "kill" And you leave their bodies in the street Agent Meat On Foot You find a sea shore Between two cliffs A huge seagull flies overhead You stop in front of a signpost The one point takes you to Where I come from Agent Meat On Boat You find yourself aboard a white ship A fisherman is packing his things He offers to sell you a fish You get into a tiny boat Sinking you swim to a huge ship In the distance you see a yellow A teal that's bigger A giant ungainly monster [The Deep] The Deep You find yourself down at the bottom of the sea You can see the seagull and the other ships But you can't see the other monsters A huge mass of armored tentacles Squirring around It's about to pull a crowd over the railings You climb to the surface Suddenly the teal and yellow appear You're at an aquarium The yellow and teal are giant divers The yellow is a big sea otter It grabs at you Breaths saltwater down your throat The otter pulls you deeper down The yellow looks you up and down

Air Traffic is an air traffic control themed game that challenges your spatial ability. The goal is to prevent collisions, organize and expedite the flow of air traffic in the area where radar coverage is limited. Radar Contact You can't see the aircraft that beyond the radar range on the screen, but you can direct it. You can choose to maintain radar identification for safety or use your mental picture of the traffic for efficiency. Deploy Radar Along with the rise of reputation, additional radar facilities are available to deploy. Increase radar coverage in the area by developing your radar network to improve aviation safety. Wind Conditions Keep an eye on the forecast, wind direction and wind speed changes constantly which could limit the direction of takeoff and landing. Terrain All maps are build based on real-world elevation data. Appreciate the nature of the terrain over which an aircraft is flying to avoid hitting anything especially in the mountain area. Aircraft Type Different aircraft type has different takeoff distance, landing distance, approach speed and maximum speed. Gives planning the route and pattern more challenging. Fuel Emergency When an aircraft was held in the air too long, it will run out of fuel and falling from the sky. Sure, the fuel emergency will be declared before that happened. Runway Management You can design your own airport procedure, assign the initial and missed approach heading and altitude to each runway. Replay You can save, watch and share the replay of your game. Off-screen gameplay, with a first-person perspective. Terror and humor in equal parts. Edit: I just noticed I only said Organ Quarters about my past, I haven't touched it for 6 months. Feel free to check it out. The original ending of the game is still to be found: Special thanks to Samoridomo, PrimitiveExplorers, mannye1441, Alfred, and the others who helped me with editing. Working Group G. Sundararaman Request for Comments: 4780 IBM Category: Standards Track May 2007 Date: August 2007 Multiprotocol Label Switching (MPLS) Traffic Engineering (TE) Backward Compatibility Implications

Status of this Memo This document specifies an Internet standards track protocol for the Internet community, and requests discussion and suggestions for improvements. Please refer to the current edition of the "Internet Official Protocol Standards" (STD 1) for the standardization state and status of this protocol. Distribution of this memo is unlimited.

Abstract MPLS Traffic Engineering (TE) has become a key infrastructure to enable efficient delivery of data traffic in the network. This document provides some basic information about backward compatibility concerns between the new and old TE protocols and whether there are any efforts from the industry and vendors to address such backward compatibility issues. The major backward compatibility concerns highlighted in this document are the inclusion of management traffic in Virtual Label Edge routers (VLEs).

“Designing REZ’s universe has been a unique journey. We started by investigating various spiritual cultures, looking for the source of the core principles and symbols hidden within. We eventually discovered that the original REZ (realm of eternal zen) is a lost ninja village in Japan. Then, although incredibly different, it totally made sense. Being from Finland we love both our culture and anime, and the historical aspect was extremely appealing, as it’s so wonderfully different from the western way of doing things.” — From the game’s website. REZPLZ is a classic game of classic games. In a world where the current life seems to no longer be relevant, a young zen monk named Rez hopes to find a meaning in life through his life and his gift. But the way he sees the world is through a strange and foggy psyche, and when you throw in his friends who will help him on his journey, you get a platformer that’s out to change the way you view the world. Rez comes in two flavors. The first is the nomadic life of a Zen monk, who travels the world in search of new experiences and to help fellow zen monks. This is Rez’s sanity mode. He’s not invincible, but he can stop time, use telekinesis, and will use his alien powers to fight off the demons that are tearing the world apart. He can also use the powers to solve problems, and in some cases save you when you’re about to die. The second mode is called Rezlogic. This is the “Life Mode”, which is where you play as the main character Rez. Rez has a special relic, with the power to let him transform himself into seven different aliens. And unlike the Zen monks, he can barely hold on to his sanity in this mode. So what are we trying to do? How do we want you to play REZPLZ? Well, honestly, we want you to express yourself and your individuality. We want to create a game that’s unique to you and your friends, a game where you can look up at a puzzle board and have a great time just by choosing the colors you like to play with. We want to create something that makes you smile, something that is in tune with the way you play games. So, in other words, we’re hoping to
