The web browser of the super-smart The browser of the super-smart How many times have you tried finding something online only to end up struggling to figure out the address of the page you wanted to visit? Or you may have forgotten the password for some of your favorite sites that you visit on a daily basis. Well, the Weber browser application may be exactly what you are looking for. Here is what this tool can do for you: • Customization - allows you to use any color you want; Password protection - you can use it with a registered account or you can create an account for free; Privacy protection - you can use this to protect your searches; Star rating - so you can rate any website of your choice. Even better, you can change the rating anytime; Password Generator - this tool allows you to create a private password for any website and you can use it right away; Total RSS feed - includes all you need to have an up-to-date website in your Web Browser - news, articles, weather, stock information, etc. • Web Browser - the application contains your favorite internet sites in your address bar, so that you never need to think about adding a website or opening a new tab to visit one; • Email and instant messaging - you can use the email address that you have registered in the application, so that you can send links or information to your friends. This application can be downloaded for free, as it contains no hidden fees or advertisements. Android Market Comments A Google UserMar 15, 2015 Good useful but...This software is good but there should be a button to save your profile and use that saved settings when you login to your device. A Google UserJul 16, 2014 Good This app is great iam using it now and its my favorite browser. A Google UserJan 14, 2014 It's lovely A Google UserNov 9, 2013 Easy to use, but there's not a lot of options The possibilities that it has seem endless, but other browsers like Blue Torch Browser and Puffin Browser have more options. A Google UserAug 21, 2013 Awesome I loved the fact that you can add any website from the web, and you can use any colour that you want, and you can specify a password for any website. This is a awesome app LestariFeb 15, 2016 This app is easy to
