The DGD is available as a public service for all the 5,500+ active Artwork Gallery DGD members. The primary purpose of the DGD is to provide support and information to the artists who donate their artwork. The DGD also provides a means for organizations, individuals and groups to assemble the work of their volunteers, artists, schools and institutions in the form of an Art Gallery. In addition to the Super pose art book scans, we also offer a similar set of ' Scanning Solution- Superpose Art Book ', which allows you to superpose all the scanned pictures onto a single superpose art book scans using simple user interface. Even the StaPier , the latter is very low-cost to produce, whereas the Superpose Art Book usually costs a few hundred dollars. However, their comparison shows that the Superpose Art Book is a better value. By receiving funding from the NEA, the Library is able to share its collections on the Internet and to maintain its Art Gallery for artists to exhibit and sell their work. By contrast, the digital content available through the World Wide Web is not supported by the NEA. Therefore, the Library does not participate in the Digital Library and only provides access to the digital content by appointment. 5ec8ef588b
